Description of Committees and Functions

The Guild Executive Board consists of the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer.

Charity Outreach manages the collection and distribution of items and money to approved charities. The activities of the group include Charity Quilt Tickets, Children's Quilts and Lap Quilts and Bibs for adults. The group is also responsible for the Hudson Hills After School Program which provides activities for children and the Guild's Scholarship program.

Education and Programs coordinates education offerings, monthly membership programs and national teachers. The group is responsible for the day, evening and Saturday classes as well as the Block of the Month (BOM) and small groups.

Library coordinates the management of printed/ audio visual resources in the Guild Library.

Membership maintains membership information, attendance records and coordinates hospitality. Acts as hostesses to new members. Responsible for visitor coordination at meetings.

Parliamentarian provides organizational guidance using Robert's Rules of Order.

Public Relations coordinates the distribution of news regarding the Guild's activities to the public. This group's responsibilities include the publication of the monthly newsletter, maintenance of the Guild's website and the coordination of programs for the monthly meeting. This group also acts as the Historian for the Guild by maintaining documentation of Guild history and events.

Specials Events is responsible for parties, celebrations and group travel arrangements. Such activities include Quilters Escape Retreat (odd years), Group Road Trips, monthly fabric exchange and Guild parties.

Ways and Means coordinates workshops to create and sell quilt related boutique items to generate income for Guild operating expenses. Volunteers create boutique items, help with workshops and Guild meeting sales. The group also manages the Quilt Show Boutique.

Quilt Show manages the Guild's quilt show which is held bi-annually (even years). Many volunteers are required to make this event a great success. All members of the Guild are expected to participate in the planning, organization, set up and staffing of this important event.
